

Existential

What would happen if in our community, we cut down all the trees and paved over the grass?
Why should we protect the plants in our community?
What might we do to help the plants in our community?

